Sells Floto Super Circus.

Mammoth Shows are Now Combined and Announce Exhibitions at Early Date.

The West's biggest amusement institution Sells Floto Super Combined, is to exhibit afternoon and night Monday, Sept. 22, at San Antonio.

The consolidation of the two biggest Western Shows in our circus of colossal size, constitutes the amusement surprise of the country. Nothing to approach this gigantic, new circus has ever before toured America. It has been formed by merging the pick and cream of all that was biggest and best in two famous shows. It would be folly to attempt to enumerate its many wonders. Some idea of the enormous scale upon which features are presented may be had when it is stated that a quarter of a million pounds of elephants take part in a single act. In other words, twice as many of the big-earned giants than have ever before been seen in one main-tent exhibition. All else to be seen in proportion. The arenic stars embrace all the world's foremost circus performers. There are three hours of novelties and big sensational acts. The menagerie is far and away the most colossal ever traveled. The great tournament, "The Birth of the Rainbow", which opens the main tent program, is the most magnificent thing in pageantry yet, produced in America. Hundreds upon hundreds of gorgeously costumed characters and beautiful horses take part in it. The morning street parade at 11 a. m. is the longest and most brilliant ever given anywhere. It is a stupendous, super-circus that baffles description.

Thrilling Love Drama In Mary Garden 'Thais'

The story of "Thais," the Goldwyn photoplay in which Mary Garden, the most celebrated woman in the world, makes her screen debut, is that of a world famous novel by Anatole France.

According to the action of the photoplay, "Thais" is a celebrated beauty in the city of Alexandria, whose innumerable love affairs have scandalized the civilized world. The time is just when Christianity is beginning to supersede pagan beliefs. From among her many lovers the fancy of Thais is engaged by Paphnutius, a wealthy young man who is noted for his learning.

The young philosopher at once falls in love with the beauty, whereupon a jealous rival plans his death. Just as he is emerging from the house of Thais, this rival sets upon him, but, in self-defence, Paphnutius kills him. Although violent deaths are common in the Alexandria of that day, and there is no likelihood of Paphnutius being punished by the authorities, his Christian precepts tell him that murder is a heinous sin; and completely overcome with remorse at what he has done, he gives away all his worldly goods and becomes a monk with a group of other men doing voluntary penance off in the desert.

Then, when he has become celebrated for his holiness, he conceives the idea of converting Thais because it would have tremendous effect on people everywhere in the great cause, by saving the soul of the most notorious figure in the world of sin.

The outcome of this situation is one of the most thrilling portions of the film.

Meeting in the Lutheran Church Sunday, Sept. 14, 1919.

Following the regular service a meeting of the members will take place, to discuss important changes in the management of the church affairs. It is therefore necessary that every member of the congregation be present and they all are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

To Every Sheep and Goat Breeder in Medina County.

Hondo, Texas, Sept. 8, 1919.

You are cordially invited, urged to attend and your presence expected in Hondo, Saturday Sept. 13, 1919, for one of the most important gatherings of live stock men ever assembled in this section for an afternoon meeting beginning promptly at 3 p. m., on the third floor of the Leinweber Building.

This meeting is for the purpose of organizing a sheep and goat Association to promote the raising of better sheep and goats, the eradication of wolves and coyotes, concentration and sale of mohair, any buyer can pay considerable more for a bulk sale than an individual sale.

If you raise sheep or goats, your interests belong here this day. In fact you can not afford to miss being present.

Poultry raisers who are interested in the eradication of wolves and coyotes should attend this meeting.

Yours Very Truly,
C. M. MERRITT,
County Agent.

Miss Fox Honored.

Miss Evelyn de Montel entertained most delightfully on Tuesday with a six course dinner, honoring Miss Elizabeth Fox of Skidmore, house guest of Miss Corinne Ney.

The home was exquisitely decorated in cut flowers in vari-colors. A so called slumber party followed an informal dance, though very little slumbering took place before five a. m., not due to hard beds or mosquitoes, but just "Marehan & Cootie." A wonderful swim, at Stiegler's beach, helped revive the sleepy bunch the next morning—but what is a swim, but an appetizer? I'll say we did justice to the delightful breakfast that followed. The remainder of the day was one of sheer delight, much excitement long to be remembered by Misses E. Fox, Mary Kempf, Eileen Schuchard, Grace Armstrong, Corinne Ney and Evelyn de Montel.

CONTRIBUTED.

George Schweers had the misfortune of having his right leg broken in two places about two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, down on the Fritz Schweers' farm. The Diedrich Wiemers thresher was in operation on the farm threshing oats; the crew were having trouble with the belt on the clutch pulley and the young man in endeavoring to kick the belt back on the pulley got his foot caught and before he could be extricated his leg was broken in two places. He was given prompt surgical attention and is now doing as well as could be expected, and we trust he will soon regain normal use of the injured member.

Looking hale and hearty Louis Brucks Jr., arrived home last week-end. His last station overseas was in Belgium, from whence he left on his journey home. Like all the other soldier boys, now that peace reigns once more, he is glad to get back into civilian life and again mingle with the friends of his boyhood days, all of whom are pleased to welcome him home. Mr. Brucks has accepted a position in tax collector's office and will shortly enter upon the discharge of his duties.

The Medina County Abstract Co. this week turned out a large Abstract for the Henry Rothe Ranch lands on upper Hondo river, containing 368 pages covering 23,000 acres of land in fifty seven tracts, which are now being subdivided and sold out in 2,000 acre tracts by the owner, Mrs. Anna Rothe, of Hondo.

KEEP A HOUSEHOLD BUDGET

Practically Impossible to Run Home Without Employment of Good Business Methods.

It must be admitted that business system is desirable in the home, for the very good and simple reason that, manifestly you cannot carry on successfully any kind of business without more or less bookkeeping, writes Carl Marshall in Thrift. But often you will hear some easy-going housekeeper say: "That's too much trouble; I have enough other things to do without bothering with accounts. Besides, what's the use? It costs you just so much to live anyway, and keeping accounts won't make the amount any less."

Lazy or inefficient folk are seldom at a loss for self-justification of this sort. Some of us can remember the old-fashioned country storekeeper who used to spend most of his time sitting on a box whittling or gossiping with the loafers when he should have been studying his business. This cheerful soul held the same views as the slack housekeeper.

But we do not see much more of this old-fashioned, happy-go-lucky country merchant. He has long ago been put out of business by his enterprising competitor who learned the value of good bookkeeping.

The answer to those who would shirk home account-keeping is simply this: You cannot plan your affairs with any certainty unless you know about them, and you cannot know about them unless you keep records of them.

HIGHEST HONORS PAID POET

Men of Every Walk in Life in Procession That Followed Robert Burns to Grave.

Robert Burns died at Dumfries, Thursday, July 21, 1796, at the age of 37. Sunday evening, July 24, the body was carried to the Trades' hall, in the High street, and from there, on Monday, July 25, it was borne to the churchyard of St. Michael's. The poet was buried with military honors. Soldiers lined the streets and a firing party, with arms reversed, marched first. The coffin was carried on the shoulders of the poet's brother volunteers. To the music of the "Dead March in Saul," the long procession walked down the High street of Dumfries and along St. Michael street to the churchyard. The soldiers who took part in the funeral were the Gentlemen Volunteers of Dumfries, to which the poet belonged; the Fencible infantry of Angusshire and the regiment of cavalry of the Cinque Ports. The two latter bodies were at that time quartered in Dumfries, and offered their assistance. Among the junior officers of the Cinque Ports regiment was the Hon. Robert Bank Jenkinson, afterwards the second earl of Liverpool and prime minister of Great Britain from 1812 to 1827. The principal inhabitants of Dumfries and the surrounding countryside walked in the procession and a vast concourse of people witnessed the funeral.

"The Faery Queen."

As a work of art "The Faery Queen" at once astonishes us by the wonderful fertility and richness of the writer's imagination, by the facility with which he finds or makes language for his needs, and above all, by the singular music and sweetness of his verse. The main theme seldom varies; it is a noble knight, fighting, overcoming, tempted, delivered; or a beautiful lady plotted against, distressed, rescued. The poet's affluence of fancy and speech gives a new turn and color to each adventure. But besides that, under these conditions there must be monotony; the poet's art, admirable as it is, gives room for objections. . . . There was looseness and carelessness, partly belonging to his age, partly his own. In the use of materials, nothing comes amiss to him. He took without ceremony any piece of old metal—word, story or image—which came to his hand, and threw it into the melting pot of his imagination, to come out fused with his own materials, often transformed, but often unchanged. The effect was sometimes happy, but not always so. —Church.

To Preserve China.

Many a lover of fine china has been heartbroken to discover her choice dinner or tea set lined with hairlike cracks. Hot tea or chocolate poured into dainty cups cracks them instantly. A Chinese merchant gave this bit of information when a rare tea set was purchased from him. "Before using delicate china place it in a pan of cold water. Let it come gradually to the boil and allow the china to remain in the water till cold." This tempers the china, and it is capable of withstanding the sudden expansion caused by the heat. There is no need of repeating the treatment for a long time."

Flower Show Old Institution.

The flower shows of English villages have an ancient origin, though few people may ever stop to give the matter a thought. The ancestry of the floral fete reaches back to the days of Ovid, the poet. As for when flower shows were first held in England, it cannot be certainly known, but it is a fact that if they did not actually introduce them, the worsted manufacturers from Flanders, fleeing the wrath of Philip and Alva, in 1567, gave a fillip to the practice. To these people Elizabeth's gardens of Elizabeth's time owed such favorites as the gilly-flower and the carnation.

BIBLES THAT ARE PRICELESS

Four Copies of Sacred Book Regarded as Treasures by Their Fortunate Owners.

The largest Bible in existence is in the royal library at Stockholm. The covers are made of solid planks, four inches thick, and the pages measure a yard in length. It is estimated that 100 asses' skins must have been used to furnish the 300 parchment leaves of this colossal book. It is considered priceless.

A well-to-do New Yorker is the proud possessor of a manuscript Bible written by his only son, a cripple. He could only work about two hours a day, so he took over two years to complete his task. It does not contain a single error or slip, for if error or slip occurred the youth discarded the whole page. The verses and headings are all in red ink, and the whole is beautifully written.

In a house in Grafton street, London, there is a shorthand Bible which was written at least two centuries before Pitman was born. It was written by an apprentice in the day of James II, when to possess a "common" or "garden" Bible was rather dangerous.

An American lady cherishes a Bible probably as old as the one written in shorthand, which an ancestress baked in a loaf of bread when a house-to-house search was being made for stray copies of the scriptures. The soldiers came to search the house, but it is not a matter of wonder that they failed to find the book, which now, looking pretty old, is the lady's chief treasure.

One Value of Silence.

Silence doesn't mean wisdom, but the fellow who keeps his mouth closed can at least hold in what he doesn't know.

Many Extra Miles

We can show you—and prove to you—that there is a genuine money saving in the use of United States Tires.

The extra miles they give mean just so many extra dollars counted in real money.

And there are further actual economies in the saving of gas, oil, repairs and depreciation.

The reason of all this is in the tires themselves—their liveliness, ruggedness and sturdiness.

There are five United States Tires—a type for every make of car.

Diamond Setting.

The following method of setting diamonds has been found to be the best: First drill the hole for the diamond to the usual depth, a little deeper than the greatest dimensions of the stone. The drilling should be done without lubricant, as oil of any kind tends to prevent the spelter from flowing smoothly.

This being done, the hole should be closed in slightly, just enough to make it out of round. The spelter is now poured into the hole, filling it completely, and the diamond, held in a pair of tweezers, is pushed into the liquid spelter in the hole until it strikes the bottom. In doing this an amount of spelter equal to the displacement of the diamond is pushed out of the hole, and when this drop of spelter makes its appearance it is certain that there are no vacant spots under the stone.

After the spelter has cooled the end of the rod in which the diamond is located can be shaped up in the customary manner. The fact that the hole is slightly out of round prevents the core of spelter from working out of the end of the rod.

Grease on Wallpaper.

To remove grease spots from wallpaper, sprinkle a piece of blotting paper with carbonate of soda and press it against the wall with a moderately hot iron. The blotting paper will absorb the grease, while the soda preserves the color of the paper.

Punishment.

The whole of life and experience goes to show, that right or wrong doing, whether as to the physical or the spiritual nature, is sure in the end to meet its appropriate reward or punishment. Penalties may be delayed, but they are sure to come.

"BAYER CROSS" ON ASPIRIN

Always Ask for Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Only Aspirin Tablets with the safe "Bayer Cross" on them are genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," own and made by Americans and proven safe by millions of people. Unknown quantities of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold recently by a Brooklyn dealer which proved to be composed mostly of Talcum Powder.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" should always be asked for. Then look for the safety "Bayer Cross" on the package and on each tablet. Accept nothing else! Proper directions and dosage in each Bayer package.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester Salicylicacid.

NICKEL BY NICKEL

Newspaper Man Dribbled His Profit to Beggar.

Little Transaction by Which Scribe Thought He Was to Make $2.65 Didn't End in Just That Desired Way.

"A newspaper friend of mine," said Mr. Goslington, "tells me of an unusual experience he has had, in fact is still having with a beggar."

"He met this beggar first about a year ago. The circumstances attending this first meeting were novel and interesting and my friend wrote a little piece about it which was printed in his newspaper and for which he received $3. As he had given the beggar a nickel he figured that his profit on this was $2.95. But:

"A couple of weeks later he again met this beggar, who again asked for a nickel, a request that my friend did not feel warranted in refusing. I don't think he would have refused anyway, my friend being an easy mark for beggars; but having profited by his original transaction with this beggar, he felt impelled to hand over this second nickel promptly, thus reducing his net on this little piece to $2.90."

"It wasn't long before my friend discovered that this beggar lived somewhere in his neighborhood and made a habit of coming to his quarry; for now he used to meet him here and there by intervals. Not always, by any means, when they met did the beggar approach him; commonly they passed each other as any other two might do, with no sign of recognition; but once in a while the beggar would ask for a nickel, which always my friend gave. In this way in the course of three months he gave up 35 cents, thus reducing the net of that $3 to $2.65. Then my friend had an idea."

"He foresaw that if this went on indefinitely, as there seemed every indication it would do, the beggar would get all of the $3, which to my friend seemed scarcely reasonable. But he did think that an even division would be no more than right to the beggar, and so when the $3 got down to $2.65 he set aside, in his mind, $1.15 as a saving account to the beggar's credit, and he said to himself that when thus the original fund had been evenly divided he would stop giving and consider that he had done the square thing."

"Well, my friend tells me that, counting a nickel that the beggar drew yesterday, he has now drawn $1.40, so that now it is a question of a very few weeks only, three or four at the utmost, when the beggar will have drawn the full share."

"Then, my friend says, he is going to shut down and keep the rest himself; but what I think he will do will be to keep on paying till the whole three dollars is gone, his original profit being thus wiped out completely. I don't know what he can do, unless he should write, covering his experiences with this unusual beggar, another and longer story; moving then to another part of the city."

Transform Historic Westminster.
Prominent citizens of London are planning to rebuild the district around Westminster abbey as a memorial to those who distinguished themselves in the world war. The improvements include the construction of a great avenue, 120 feet wide, and a new Lambeth bridge. The design for the bridge is to be chosen from plans submitted by architects from all over the world. Buildings are projected for the University of London, for a Shakespearean theater, and for art and science exhibits. The new avenue will contain groups of statues commemorating the heroic deeds of the British, Canadian, New Zealand and Australian forces, as well as those of their allies. It is intended to make the finest and most impressive monumental avenue in the British empire.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Chinese Railways Busy.
Latest reports indicate that the 3,000 miles of government railways carry daily more than 25,000,000 passengers—a total of 1,000,000,000 miles. Seventy-seven per cent of the receipts of the government railways come from passenger service. On five of the lines the passenger revenues exceed the cost of transportation of goods. Fifty-five per cent of the passenger fare is third-class at an average fare of one cent a mile, which means a large amount of travel by the poorer class.

English Lenses Superior.
The new aero-photography commenced by its great part in the war, it was found that the German-made lenses did the work of picturing from the air far better than British-made lenses. But the English opticians set to work, and in a short time they produced lenses that beat the German product fair and square. Captured photographic apparatus during the latter part of the war showed that German lenses were inferior in quality to those made in Britain. No German lens has yet been found that could picture a barbed wire entanglement from a height of three miles, but the British product would, and very did.

LOCALITY NOT WELL NAMED

Desert Island, Off Maine Coast, Has Many Attractions for Naturalist and Pleasure Seeker.

Mount Desert Island started its career with the handicap of a name that suggests a place of glaring, sun-baked sands and rocks. Yet it has overcome this disadvantage to the extent of now being put down as a national park. Moreover, it occupies a coveted position in Bar Harbor, one of the most popular and fashionable summer resorts of the Atlantic coast.

It was Champlain who named the island. He was sailing along the Maine coast when he sighted a patch of land with a backbone ridge of apparently treeless mountains. "Isle of Desert Mountains," Champlain called it, and sailed away. Later it was visited by more curious explorers, and, while the original name stuck, Mount Desert Island came to be known as a delightfully wooded island, with picturesque mountain trails, shadowy lakes and a remarkable variety of birds and plants.

As these reports spread, Mt. Desert acquired a population of nature enthusiasts, artists, poets and a steadily increasing representation from the world of fashionable society.

Bar Harbor, the best-known summer colony of Mt. Desert, lies on the east coast of the island overlooking Frenchman's bay and the blue Atlantic. There are gorgeous villas and expensively simple cottages in Bar Harbor, a country club, golf courses, beaches, and all the rest of the usual summer resort equipment.

But most people find the mountains and lakes of the island more interesting than the artificial atmosphere of the built-up resort. Birds from arctic regions as well as countless varieties from warmer latitudes find their way to the island, and brighten wood and shore with gay flashes of color. Mt. Desert's long standing as a bird refuge, its scenic beauty and its interesting geologic history—which shows that its mountains and valleys were cut out in an early glacial period—all combined to make it desirable as a national reservation. The idea was long considered, and at last, in 1917, part of Mt. Desert was set aside as a national playground and an official bird refuge.

FINDING HAPPINESS IN WORK

Matter Which Is Largely Dependent on Attitude One Assumes Toward Necessary Labor.

Work is God's greatest blessing to man. Until you have learned to look upon your work, not as a curse, not as drudgery, not as a treadmill which you are compelled to turn laboriously every day, you cannot be really happy. You are missing the best that is in life, remarks Forbes Magazine.

No honest work need be drudgery, whether it be sweeping streets, making collars or painting famous pictures.

Art is nothing but doing a thing in the best way it can be done.

Each one of us can be an artist at his or her work. All we need do is put our whole heart, our whole enthusiasm, our whole souls, our whole talent into doing it with the greatest care, the greatest skill and the greatest efficiency we can command.

Until we do this we can be neither successful nor contented, for Providence has ordained that, in order to be happy, we must do the best and the most we are capable of.

Loafers, whether rich or poor, do not know true happiness, do not know the sense of satisfaction which comes from work well done and done with a will.

Whether we find pleasure in our work or whether we find it a bore depends entirely upon our mental attitude toward it, not upon the task itself.

Seven Wise Men of Greece.

By the expression, "The Seven Wise Men of Greece," is meant a number of men among the Greeks of the sixth century before Christ, distinguished for their practical sagacity and their wise maxims or principles of life. Their names are variously given, but those most generally admitted to the honor are Solon, Chilo, Pittacus, Bias, Periander (in place of whom some give Epimenides), Cleobulus and Thales. They were the authors of the celebrated mottoes inscribed in later days in the Delphian temple. These mottoes, with the name of the author of each, were: "Know Thyself," by Solon; "Consider the end," by Chilo; "Know thy opportunity," by Pittacus; "Most men are bad," by Bias; "Nothing is impossible to industry," by Periander; "Avoid excess," by Cleobulus; and "Suretyship is the precursor of ruin," by Thales.

Lamb and Mutton.

The dividing line between lamb and mutton is not based wholly upon age; a well-bred and well-fed animal, 12 or 18 months old, may still belong to the lamb class, while a yearling of rangy stock, which has been poorly fed yields meat of an inferior grade of mutton.

The best grade of mutton consists of fat, heavy meat. Light and flabby meat is not very palatable. Lamb rarely is an economical meat to serve. The relative difference in food value between lamb and mutton is the same as between veal and beef.

The meat should be of a deep red color and firm to the touch; the fat creamy, white and solid. Mutton absorbs odors easily, so it must be kept in a cool place under proper conditions.

WHERE BEDS ARE UNKNOWN

Residents of Merida, Yucatan, Enjoy Repose in Hammocks Which May Be Slung Anywhere.

In Merida, Yucatan, the majority of the people do not use beds, in fact very few of them have even seen one. They sleep in hammocks, which are swung across the rooms at night and with no fuss of bedmaking; the person just goes to bed and is gently rocked to sleep by any passing breeze. The climate is so hot that it is only during the months of January and February that a light sheet may be required as covering.

These hammocks are usually made by the mother of the family, writes Lilly deG. Osborn, in St. Nicholas, and consist of thread, more or less fine, woven together on great frames with a kind of shuttle or needle. Some of the designs are wonderfully intricate and the colors beautifully blended. I saw one very large one, made in the colors of the United States flag, which was to be sent up to the United States for a gift. It was certainly a work of art, made of the very finest mercerized thread; and yet the hammock could easily support a weight of 300 pounds. A servant always brings his or her own hammock, which is very convenient.

Quilts Really Ancient Game.

The quilt is a flattish ring of iron, used in playing. It is generally from eight and a half to nine and a half inches in external diameter, and between one and two inches in breadth, convex on the upper side and slightly concave on the under side, so that the outer edge curves downward, and is sharp enough to cut into soft ground. The game played with such rings requires two pins, called hobs, driven part of their length into the ground some distance apart; and the players, who are divided into two sides, stand beside one hob, and in regular succession throw their quilts, of which each player has two, as near the other hob as they can. The side which has the quilt nearest the hob counts a point toward the game, or, if the quilt is thrown so as to surround the hob, it counts two. The game slightly resembles the ancient exercise of throwing the discus, which has, however, been often translated by this English word.

First Wheat Grown in Canada.

The first wheat that ripened in Canadian sunshine was grown in 1607 at Port Royal, now Annapolis Basin, Nova Scotia. Here Champlain and de Monts founded a post and built a fort. They were joined by Marc Lescarbot, a lawyer of Paris, a poet, and the earliest writer of Canadian history. Love of adventure drew him to Port Royal. Outside the palisades of the fort he cultivated a plot of land in part of which he sowed wheat, brought, of course, from France. His sowing was full of winter wheat. It grew well, ripened perfectly, and with sickles Lescarbot and his associates cut the crop. That was the first wheat crop harvested on land now within the Dominion of Canada.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of a case of stomach trouble that made me miserable for three or four years, but I have actually gained twenty pounds in weight besides," said Charles O. Schwendel, of 3115 Villet street, Milwaukee, Wis., recently. Mr. Schwendel is night watchman in the yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad and has lived in Milwaukee all his life.

"Nothing I would eat agreed with me," he continued, and the sight or smell of food would nauseate me. Right after eating I would have terrible pains in my stomach, I would bloat up with gas and suffer with pains around my heart. At times this gas would almost cut off my breath and would make me so weak I could hardly stand and when I would bend over to throw a switch I would pitch forward on my hands and knees. I couldn't sleep more than two hours a day and just had to force myself to work.

"I tried everything I heard of, but got no better. Then I laid off from work for some time trying to rest up. One of my neighbors persuaded me to try Tanlac and it has made me feel like a new man. I am eating any and everything I want without the least trouble from it and I sleep like a log. I haven't had a pain or an ache of any kind and will always have a good word to say for Tanlac."

TEXAS MAN TREATED FOR CANCER.

Col. W. A. Poage, Member of State Legislature, After Giving Up All Hope, Says He Is Cured.

The recent death by cancer of an intimate friend caused Col. W. A. Poage, 180 Lyle Ave., Waco, Texas, member of the Texas State Legislature, to make the following statement:

"I feel that I am permanently cured of my cancer trouble. In August, 1917, I came to your place in Kansas City suffering with a bad cancer on my face. I had almost given up all hope, for I had been treated by some of the best doctors in Texas, and had grown steadily worse under their treatment. I suffered a great deal of pain. Two weeks after you began to treat me, I grew better, and in three months felt that I was entirely cured. The day I went to you was the best day of my life."

The above was written to Dr. O. A. Johnson, Suite 560, 1324 Main St., Kansas City, Mo., the physician who treated Col. Poage so successfully. Dr. Johnson is perhaps the best informed man in the United States today on cancer. He conducts a large institution for the treatment of cancer, in connection with which is also maintained a laboratory for scientific cancer research. Thousands of cases have been investigated and treated in the past twenty years. This treatment is entirely non-surgical. Purely medicinal measures only are employed; that is, external applications to destroy the cancer and internal medication to purify the blood.

Dr. Johnson has published a most interesting book called "Cancer Truths", being a statement of his theories and experiences in treating cancer. This book will be sent gladly to any cancer sufferer, or if you have a friend afflicted with that disease, get the book for him. Simply address Dr. O. A. A good deal of complaint is heard in Hondo these days about the theft of chickens. It is reported that a young man, returning home rather late at night, disturbed a thief helping himself to a lot of plump pullets. It would be well enough for our people to keep "old silent Betsy" loaded and handy and give one of these midnight prowlers a surprise. Giving a physician a couple of hours employment in picking bird shot out of one of these sneak thieves is all that is necessary to put a stop to this chicken stealing industry.

stance, before we know what will afford us a fair profit, we know what it has cost us to produce the commodity.

can be arrived at only through tedious process of cost accounting against the product of time, labor or cash expended in the production of the commodity.

ing this cost we can then tell price our commodity should command bring us the profit, the cash to which our labor is entitled. Our commodity is commanding price on the market our problem is and we can count ourselves safe.

we have not been always thus state is evidenced by the increase in the ever growing drift of rural population to the cities and industrial centers.

medly this, then, we must be business men in the sense that we know our costs.

ing our costs, what are we to the market does not offer us a price at the time our commodity is ready to market?

opens up many phases of the marketing problem.

product is of the non-perishable, as in the case of cotton, the warehouse answers that problem, the elevator, etc.

where the product is of highly perishable kind, and does not lend itself to processing with that readiness characterizes the sweet potato, look well to our markets in the ripening of the harvest.

must first take into consideration probable demand and our facilities for reaching that demand with the commodity.

have in mind a farmer who has lost the greater part of a crop because he grew more than the local demand could absorb, not enough to attract car-lot buyers, command facilities for transportation and shipment.

in such crops are grown they are grown by groups of farmers in such quantities as to attract buyers.

grown in such quantities steps are taken in time and in such a systematic manner as to command attention of buyers for the trade. Recent press despatch carried the fact that hundreds of bushels of sweet potatoes were rotting in the Ballinger market—doubtless because of neglect of every factor.

other sections of the state, thousands of dollars worth of watermelons rotted because of failure to secure cars for shipping in time; a serious and serious mistake of some kind.

harvest season for most crops is at hand, and the world needs and has of our abundance.

will take it of us at reasonable prices if we can place it within the world's reach economically.

get on this marketing job and stay on it until the last of our crop is disposed of at right prices. We have those prices, prices that justly and fully compensate us, if we carry our commodities over the next harvest season and have to bring all next year to keep down production.

it's quit rushing our commodities onto the market, compelling speculative buyer to relieve us of whatever price he sees fit to give, then cursing the speculator for buying us.

be our own conservators of our products, not delegate that duty to the speculators.

use sense in marketing our products as we have used sense in growing and producing them.

shall it profit a farmer to produce an abundance and turn it over to a speculator to fatten on while he is hungry, ill-clad and dissatisfied? Prosperity, contentment and happiness wait not alone upon abundant production but production must be attended by profitable sale of the product.

The makers design their own fabrics; experiment with them till they make good; dye their own yarns with fast colors; and then put the results of fifty years' experience into the cut and tailoring.

No wonder you admire the fineness of texture in EAGLE SHIRTS, the cleverness and exclusiveness of design. These, with superiority of fit and finish, make unnecessary the absolute guarantee nevertheless given by the maker and by us.

CASE

KEROSENE TRACTORS

Why You Will Prefer This Case 15-27

THE view and description of the chassis of the Case 15-27 Kerosene Tractor afford convincing proof that one should study design and materials before deciding which tractor to buy.

Checking over and comparing the several tractors you are considering will give you a satisfactory, money-saving purchase.

What we offer on this page is a very brief outline. Complete specifications, illustrations and descriptions are contained in our catalog of Case Kerosene Tractors, which will be sent gladly on request. Every prospective owner of a tractor should have a copy.

This Case 15-27 is conservatively rated. While rated at 15 horsepower on the drawbar it can deliver more than 18. While rated at 27 horsepower on the belt, it can deliver 33.

Thus we establish a reserve for emergencies. This tractor pulls four plows in hard plowing or five plows under favorable conditions.

With reasonable good footing, this tractor delivers a pull of 3,000 pounds at the drawbar. Its reserve power makes it possible to deliver 3,600 pounds pull, or over. Compare this reserve with others of similar rating.

At belt work this tractor will drive a Case 26x46 Thresher with wind-stacker and feeder, or other machinery requiring similar power. Its 4-cylinder valve-in-head motor, governor controlled, delivers a steady flow of power.

Uniform speed is absolutely necessary for successful threshing and other belt jobs. Be sure that the tractor you buy is as efficient for belt work as it is at the drawbar.

Note that the motor is set crosswise, with pulley mounted directly on the crank shaft and on the same side as the steering gear. This arrangement makes it easier in "lining up" with belt-driven machines. It saves time.

As you study this 15-27, dozens of superiorities will appeal.

It is very economical in the use of kerosene. All traction gears are cut steel, enclosed and running in oil. Its perfected air washer prolongs the life of the motor. Hyatt Roller Bearings throughout. Complete accessibility to all parts is afforded by quickly removable covers.

Send today for a complete description of this and other Case Tractors. Familiarize yourself with our latest and best. Become a real judge of tractor values.

JOHN KIRBY WILL DIRECT CAMPAIGN
OF S. A. IN TEXAS
Wealthy Lumberman to Select
Executive Committee Soon
For State.

MILLION IS ASKED FOR RELIEF WORK
Money Raised in Drive to Be Used in Building Where Donated

John Kirby, millionaire lumberman of Houston has accepted the post of chairman of the Salvation Army home service drive in Texas, which will begin in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana September 29 for $1,000,000.
Mr. Kirby will be associated in the drive with Governor J. B. A. Robertson who is heading the drive from Oklahoma City, and Governor R. G. Pleasant of Louisiana. Governor Hobbs of Texas is acting in an honorary capacity on the Texas committee.
"Mr. Kirby was selected to head the state committee because of his popularity with the citizens of Texas," Lieutenant Commander George Wood of the Dallas Salvation Army post declared yesterday. "His long association with the financial interests of the state make virtually certain the success of the home service campaign."

General in Scope
The home service campaign will be general throughout the United States. The money asked of the nation is $13,000,000. The share of the southwestern group of states directed from Dallas is set at $1,000,000. On an estimated population of 5,000,000 for Texas, Oklahoma and the sections of Arkansas and Louisiana included in the territory the amount required will reach 20 cents per capita.
The Salvation Army funds raised in the great cities of the southwest will be spent in the cities from which it is donated. The money will be spent entirely for the betterment of home conditions.
"The question has been asked by a farmer as to what his interest is in the city development of the Salvation Army is," Lieutenant Colonel Woods of the Dallas office said yesterday. "The interest is strong. It affects him directly. It strikes at his family."

City Life Protected
"The welfare of the Salvation Army is the welfare of his son or daughter who visits the great cities of the nation in search of work.
"The boy who comes to the city is given wholesome surroundings. He is given a clean bed. He is offered a place for healthy recreation. He is taught to avoid the pitfalls of city life into which he might fall were he permitted to go his way without guidance."

"The daughter of the farmer or of the man from a small town is given a clean lodging place in the girls' hotel with board at a low cost. Many girls would not be able to successfully combat the economic conditions of which they are ignorant when they come to the cities without the aid of the Salvation Army."

Thousands to Cities
"Thousands of such young people flock into the cities each year. They are employed in clothing stores, five and ten cent shops and telephone offices. In many cases the wage paid is insufficient for their needs.
"The Salvation Army steps into the breach at such times and extends a helping hand."
The Salvation Army owns in Texas two rescue, two maternity and two children's homes. In addition the organization has four workingmen's hotels and two industrial stores. The rescue, maternity and children's homes are at San Antonio and El Paso.
Eighty-five working girls and 215 children have been admitted to the homes in the past year. The new state fund asked in the Salvation Army campaign will go in part for the enlargement of the San Antonio homes. New buildings and institutions are planned for Oklahoma and Louisiana.

A THOROUGH TEST.
One To Convince the Most Skeptical Hondo Reader.
The test of time is the test that counts.
Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.
The following case is typical.
Hondo residents should be convinced. The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.
Testimony like this cannot be ignored.
Thos. McCall, carpenter, Hondo, says: "I came down with an attack of kidney trouble. I had such a severe pain that I could hardly stoop over or lift anything. My back pained all the time and made it difficult for me to do my work. I had heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of so I bought some at Windrow's Drug Store. Doan's helped me right away and two boxes removed the trouble."
Mr. McCall gave the above statement May 29, 1915 and on May 5, 1919, he added: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times for a slight backache since they cured me four years ago. I think just as much of Doan's as ever."
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McCall had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Income Tax.
The English income tax, first imposed by Pitt in 1798 as a war tax, was abolished at the Peace of Amiens in 1801, and again imposed on the resumption of hostilities in 1803. At the downfall of Napoleon it ceased to be levied for twenty-six years—1816-1842—when it was reimposed by Sir Robert Peel. In June, 1842, at seven pence in the pound, and produced about five million pounds. As showing the rapid advance of the country in prosperity, the tax which produced about seven hundred and ten thousand pounds for each penny of tax in 1842 yielded two million six hundred and ninety-one thousand four hundred and twenty-two pounds per penny in 1909-1910, and at the present time considerably over three million pounds for each penny.

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

Novelist's Wife Puts In.
"She regretted the bath. She missed it, and so must we all. In modern history, as in modern fiction, it is not nice in the least for the heroine—even such a dubious heroine as Mamie—to have a bathless day. As for heroes, in the polite chronicles, they get at least two baths a day—one heroic cold shower in the morning and one hot tub in the late afternoon before getting into faultless evening attire. This does not apply to heroes of Russian masterpieces, of course, for they never bathe. ("Why should they, my wife puts in, since they're going to commit suicide anyway?")—"The Cup of Fury," by Rupert Hughes.

EZRA PROVED TRUE PROPHET
His Prediction That Funeral and Marriage Were Before Him Turned Out to Be Exact.
Last week a friend drifted in from the Old Home Town, now 20 years back of me, and we had a season of gossip about the old acquaintances which was soul satisfying. Some of the stories were pathetic, some were sordid, some were humorous, but all of them illustrated phases of life in a country town. Perhaps this one about Ezra was the best.
When I left the Old Home Town Ezra was the possessor of a wife whom he had had for 25 years or more, and who was in fairly good condition, although a little deaf, as might well be, for no woman ever talked more fluently or more willingly than did her husband. For some reason she was taken ill and died, and Ezra mourned her for a time, not an exceedingly long time, and then he began to take notice and presently married again.
This wife No. 2 was, of course, a later model, but she, too, fell ill, and the physician advised an operation. Ezra hired an automobile and went with her to the hospital, where the physicians told him that there was little hope that she would recover. He went home sorrowfully, and finally he broke out to the driver in this way: "Good Lord, I've got to go through it all again—bury this wife and then get another one!"
And he was a true prophet for things happened just as he predicted. —Hartford Courant.

ANY FOOL CAN FIND FAULT
Practically Impossible for Any Proposition, However Good, to Be Absolutely Without Flaw.
There is nothing however good but a person may find some fault in it if he is determined to do so. There is nothing perfect that is of man's making. There is nothing that man originates or performs but what contains more or less of his weakness. Worth, like water, must stay below the level of its source. It is quite natural that a person should dissent. The scientists dispute as much as the theologians. Every time one obtains a new standpoint he changes his opinion. Everytime he meets a friend he finds that he differs.
So we must make up our minds to disagree in the right spirit, observes the Ohio State Journal. If we don't do that and our disagreement falls into ill will and anxiety, then we become enemies of the truth and social pests besides. The person we earnestly and candidly disagree with may be right and ourselves wholly wrong. It would make us feel very absurd sometimes in the midst of a violent controversy, to have a sudden light let in on the controversy and show our adversary entirely right. The safest thing, so far as one's conduct toward him is concerned is to remember he may be right and treat him accordingly.

Markings of Horse's Coat.
It is found that there is a very definite connection between the coat color of horses and the frequency with which white markings occur. Thus the latter are by far the most commonly associated with the chestnut color. And not only are they the most prevalent in chestnut horses, but it is also, of course, a well-known fact that the markings are apt to be more extended in nature in the case of this color than in that of any other. Chestnut, therefore, apparently possesses so to speak, a special affinity for these markings. Bay ranks next as regards the degree of frequency with which white markings appear in horses of this color, although it comes a good way behind chestnut in this respect. Then follows brown, while the white marks are met with less frequently among black and roan colored horses.

Why Strike Collapsed.
Two telegraph operators worked in the office of the Milwaukee Free Press. Both were employed by the press association and not by the paper. They came soused one Sunday night, decided to strike, making demands for more pay and shorter hours from the managing editor of the newspaper. They were told to make their petition to their employers. The telegraphers retired for a council of war, put the strike into effect and decided to picket the office. The office had but one entrance, but there must be strategy; so one of the strikers posted himself directly in front of the office and the other around the corner, the two being out of sight of each other.
Then each had the same hunch of getting another drink. They left their posts and that was the end of the strike. Other operators were called in and the wires buzzed merrily on.—Pep.

Bankers Declare These Very Best Securities That Money Can Buy

Hundreds of banks, over the Eleventh Federal District have already invested in the new $1,000 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates and more orders for them are being received every day by the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas. Bankers are practically unanimous in declaring these new $100 and $1,000 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates the best securities the Government has ever offered.

Individuals, corporations, cities, counties and school districts are also buying these Registered Certificates in large numbers. The State of Texas was one of the first purchasers, State Treasurer John W. Baker getting $500 worth for each of two State funds. The law does not permit more than $500 (worth, maturity value) to be held in any one name, but a member of a family or firm, each director in a bank or corporation may hold the amount.

$100 Certificates may be purchased at all first and second class postoffices and from all banks and trust companies, while the $1,000 Certificates are obtainable from banks and trust companies only. Each Certificate is registered in the buyer's name when issued and the buyer's name is also inscribed on the face of the Certificate.

Bearing interest at 4 per cent, compounded every 90 days, and maturing January 1, 1924, these Registered Treasury Savings Certificates form an ideal investment. They are exempt from taxation, insured by the Government against loss and may be cashed on ten days' notice. War Savings Stamps of the 1919 issue may be converted into these Certificates if desired.

The cost price for the $100 Registered Certificates is as follows: August $82.80; September $84.00; October $84.40; November $84.40; December $84.60.

The cost of the $1,000 Registered Certificate is only $65.85 for August; September $68.40; October $68.42; November $68.44; December $68.46.

The Government will pay the full face value of these Registered Treasury Savings Certificates on January 1, 1924, or the amount invested with accrued interest if the holders want to cash them before that date.

Take Active Part In Fight Against High Living Cost.

Fight the high cost of living by avoiding waste, buying carefully, saving what you can and investing this saving in Registered Treasury Savings Certificates or War Savings Stamps. Work and save! This is doubly wise at this time as not only is the money being saved and put to work making interest, but dollars with low purchasing power now are being invested with a certainty that they will buy more later on.

The dollar today will buy less in groceries, clothing and other necessities than at any time since the Civil War. There is every indication, however, that prices will be more normal in a few years. The dollars invested in these new Registered Treasury Savings Certificates which have just been issued by the U. S. Government or War Savings Stamps will not only buy more five years from now, but will bring the interest earned with them when returned to their owners.

Save all you can and put the dollars you save to work for you. You will find you are making good progress this way in giving old "H. C. L." his death blow.

No. 1873 J. P. Nixon and Mary Nixon vs. Calvin O. Smith.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Medina County—Greeting: You Are Hereby Commanded, That by making Publication of this Citation, in some newspaper published in the County of Medina, four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Calvin O. Smith, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the County of Medina at the Court House thereof, in Hondo, Texas, on the 6th Monday after the first Monday in September, the same being October 13th A. D. 1919, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 11th day of September A. D. 1919, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1872, wherein J. P. Nixon, and Mary Nixon are plaintiffs and Calvin O. Smith is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows to-wit:

Suit to cancel and holding the same null and void for various reasons a certain Oil, Gas and Mineral Lease Contract executed by said plaintiffs on Jan. 11, 1918, to one B. J. Waugh, and transferred and assigned by the said B. J. Waugh, to the defendant. Said Lease Contract embraces about 5688 acres of land more or less situated in Medina County, Texas, owned by said plaintiffs, and described as follows: Abst. No. 1735, Sur. 78, 640 acres; Abst. No. 1148, Sur. 293, 640 acres; Abst. No. 1462, Sur. No. 127, 640 acres; Abst. No. 1298 Sur. No. 123, 152 acres; Abst. No. 1385, Sur. No. 75, 320 acres; Abst. No. 1473, Sur. No. 125, 100 acres; Abst. ## Jolly Little Chipmunk.

The place the chipmunk fills is small and inconsequent but his sylvan "chirrup" plays a minor strain in the wordless diapason which the mighty blue soul of nature is forever singing in her forests; solemn and consoling to heal earth's scars; jubilant and glad for the free of heart. Intoning ever some clear sweet note of mystic melody for those who listen, to awaken a dreaming bliss or to thrill an untired fiber into quivering life.

PROOF OF MOON'S ROTATION

Nikola Tesla Shows Conclusively That Speculations as to Orb's Movement Are Wrong.

Nikola Tesla communicates to the Electrical Experimenter a striking proof of the fact that the moon does not rotate on its axis, but only seems to do so. Much of his article is extremely technical, involving the complex mathematical formula of kinetics, but the following extract, with the accompanying diagram, can be understood by anyone.

The diagram shows a system composed of eight balls (M), which are carried on spokes (S), radiating from a hub (H) rotatable around a central axis (O) in bearings supposed to be frictionless. The balls are not a part of the spokes, but are supported in pivots (s) which are nominally loose, but can be tightened so as to permit free turning or rigid fixing as desired. To facilitate observation, the spokes are provided with radial marks and the lower halves of the balls are shaded.

Now, with the pivots loose, start the apparatus going in the clockwise direction marked by the black arrow—from position 1 to 8—and by the time it has made the whole circuit of (O) it has shown its whole circumference to any observer at (O). Thus it has revolved on its axis.

Now tighten the screws so that the ball no longer turns freely on its axis, but becomes a solid part of the spoke. The side that is turned toward (O) at the beginning remains always turned toward (O), and an observer at (O) sees only one face of the ball in its revolution.

Now, the latter is exactly the case of the moon. If the moon were free to turn upon its axis, we on earth should see its whole circumference in the course of a month and we might know what is on the other side of the moon as well as we know what is on the one face with which we are all familiar.
